

Privacy Notice

DJ School UK adheres to the General Data Protection Regulations 2018

We take your privacy very seriously and hope you understand what data we take, why we take it, how we keep it and what you can do about it. Below is a table which details all this information. If you are not comfortable or want to discuss any part of this information please contact our Data Protection Officer: Jim Reiss on 07949379442, jim@djschooluk.org.uk or ask any member of staff to have Jim contact you.

- ! In a nutshell: We exist to help engage young people in DJ skills and music-making. We only use data if you have signed a consent form with us. We may use your data to contact you directly to advertise our services but we will never sell or share your data to any other organisation for the purposes of marketing or advertising.
- ! We will use data, specifically CCTV and online video recording footage, but also self-assessment records, for the purposes of child protection and safeguarding.
- ! We will use video recorded during online teaching to assess students' progress and teachers' performance.
- ! We may use data collected from you or the child or young person you represent to celebrate our work for the purposes of fund-raising. Data used for this purpose will be totally anonymous and will only take the form of statistical reports.
- ! We may use data (including video, images and audio recordings) collected from you or the child or young person you represent to celebrate their successes and to promote our good work.
- ! We will need to use data to submit children and young people for certifications.
- ! We will need to use data to collect payments where necessary.
- ! In the case of our 18+ corporate team building, stag, hen, birthday and other fund-raising events we may use CCTV footage if we need to provide evidence of damage caused or other matters that could affect our contract with the clients.

Over the page all our data usages are covered in much more detail.

At any points you can request your data is destroyed (unless the data is part of a legal investigation) – please speak to Jim Reiss with any thoughts or concerns.
